

CANNON AID

I can't forget some of the well times we had together.

Dick Miller

Remember when we used to go out together. Especially S.S.
with a tall fellow. and
and B.W.

Good luck to a sweet kid.
Take care of your friends. Hold on to your green, your
youth, your wife
and happiness

Yours a sick chick

CLASS ADVISERS

We are grateful to our advisers, Mrs. Anna B. Heintzelman and Mr. Robert E. Sheads, for their cooperation with us in the past years. Mrs. Ridinger, adviser for our first three years, resigned last year and Mrs. Heintzelman assumed the position. All three of them helped faithfully to guide us through our various class activities and for this we are duly grateful. We hope they will be proud of us in the future and we take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation for their guidance.

CASUAL COMMENTS

DANIEL HOFFMAN—Thinks bangs are just comph! Doesn't care for red hair, his tag D. Hoffman, Sec., very much interested in farming

JULIA HULL—Goes for CMPs in a big way, turns her nose up at "stuck-up kids," is forever saying, "Oh my golly," can be easily recognized by flowers and ribbons in her hair, plans to be a secretary

RICHARD JOHNSON—Thinks beef steak is luscious, isn't well pleased with the high price of movies and shirts, yells "Suffer," can be seen on his bicycle (motor at last), future lies in U. S. Army

WINIFRED JONES—Loves men with short curly hair, hillbilly music and Buick convertibles, turns her back on two-faced people, likes to say, "Well, jeepers!" Easily identified by bangs and red hot temper, has an undecided future

MAURICE KANE—Adores Jeannine, dancing and sleep, dislikes missing "lay up shots" in basketball "My aching back" Answers to name of "Killer," his future is undecided

DORIS KARAS—Likes shrimp, chemistry, slacks and cats, dislikes nuts, peanuts, rainy weather, always calling "Hi ya, Kid," often seen with Bette Lou and Pat, future is in medicine as an obstetrical nurse

MARTHA KECKLER—Fond of dancing, thinks "stuck-up" people are awful, timidly says, "Oh, Gee," known by her quietness and Don, future lies in being a secretary

JOHN KEEFER—Thinks school is wonderful, but thinks homework is unnecessary, often says, "Oh, heck!" Identified by his quietness, hope for future is to be a teacher

JOYCE KEEFER—Swoons to "Stardust," despises tricky lines, is forever saying, "Hi, girl," tagged by that special guy named "Dick," desires to be a secretary

TREVA KEEFER—Thinks eating, dancing, maroon and blue are wonderful, casts a scornful glance on sarcastic people and those who "jump" to conclusions, "Are you sure, are you positive?" Identified by Freddie, Ann and Viola, greatest desire is to be a beautician

RUTH KEPNER—Lover of chocolate milk, cake, thinks wasps are hideous creatures, often heard remarking, "That's a laugh and a half," easily identified by expression of feelings on her face, wants to be a nurse

DORIS JEAN KITZMILLER—Thinks good music and travel are O.K., thinks rainy weather is just the opposite "You like that, huh?" Answers to "Kitzie," future is a secretary

BARBARA KLINEFELTER—Likes swimming, dancing, singing, a certain someone's black wavy hair. The combination of blue and green, and CT tests in shorthand sour on thought. Forever saying, "Oh, my word," known by her radiant smile, future is secretarial work vs. marriage

MARY LOU KRANIAS—Says her mother's spaghetti, and Ernie's Hot Dogs are for her, casts a scornful glance on grouchy people, unconsciously says "Doggone it," answers to the name of Krank, greatest desire is to get married and settle down.

JANE KUMP—Swoons to Vaughn Monroe's "Fishing for the Moon" and dancing, turns her back to "show-offs," "Hey there," identified by Listerine smile and Joyce, future is to be a secretary

MARY LAZOS—Thinks French fries and coffee are delish, pumps with anklets are ridic, forever saying "Holy Beck," always seen with Deloris and Ida, desires to become a beautician

JAMES LEECH—Oh! those blue eyes, where John McKenrick goes, he goes, pet greeting is "Hello Buddy," dotes on French fries and waffles, likes women, despises conceited and bragging people

PAUL LINGG—"Bud," goes for good steaks, interested in sports, dancing, and sleeping, lucky, has no dislikes, heard saying "What you got in the box, Doc," hopes to be an accountant

DELORIS LITTLE—Known by her laugh, seen with Mary Lazos and Ida Redding, pet reply is "Well, I don't know," prefers coffee and shoestrings after school, dislikes tall girls with short boys, the future is indefinite

MARTHA MARTIN—Crazy about white cats and Greyhound buses, hates people who are always pushing, wonders who invented homework, says "Oh! My!" Always wears white socks and a friendly smile, wants to be an elementary teacher

JOHN MCKENRICK—Seen with Jim Leech, dislikes show-offs and braggarts, big interest is sports, always saying "I flubbed up," the service is his future

PHYLLIS MENCHER—Recognized by her giggle, has a fancy for Indians (anytime, anywhere), simply hates Sen Sens, heard saying "Lo-o-ve it!" Also expects to be an elementary teacher

BETTY MILLER—"Half hour," frequently remarks "My Cow!" Loves music and bicycling, abhors braggarts, the future is unknown

EVELYN MILLER—Likes to sleep and listen to the radio, passion for sports and driving, detests show-offs and public speaking, seen with Geraldine Shetter and Janice Rebert, hopes to be a beautician or secretary

JACK MOSER—Known as Doedoe, likes his girl, wants a longer lunch period, can be heard saying "My aching back," it's the Army for him

HARRY MYERS—Always has shiny shoes, heard saying "Wise up," detests studying, likes sports, some girls, and trapping, expects to be a mechanic

ANN RAFFENSPERGER—Wears a certain I.D. bracelet, seen with Treva Keefer, likes to eat, dislikes people exaggerating true facts, pet greeting, "Hi, girl," a prospective kindergarten teacher

MADELINE RAFFENSPERGER—Known by her pigeon-toed walk, exclaims about everything with "Ye! Gracious!" Big moment is sports, detests show-offs and braggarts, wishes for a secretarial position

JANE RAMER—Known by her legs (the shape of them), pet saying is "Holy Cow," just loves hamburgers 'n' milkshakes, dislikes people who are never on time, expects to be a laboratory technician

JANICE REBERT—Identified with Evelyn Miller, "My Word!" Wonders who invented eating herring fish, detests braggarts, enjoys dancing, eating, driving, and sleeping, a future secretary

IDA REDDING—Seen with Deloris Little and Mary Lazos, pet saying is "Holy Cow!" Likes '46 Pontiacs (wonder why?), dancing is her speed, also goes for black dresses and long hair, thinks jealousy is terrible, doesn't like yellow and red combinations, dislikes arguing, a future beautician

FLOYD REYNOLDS—Recognized by a camouflage jacket and saying "Holy Mackerel," prefers sociable people, can always eat fried chicken, mashed potatoes with gravy and Coke, thinks girls who smoke are ridiculous, one of those future farmers.

CASUAL COMMENTS

MADELINE RHODES—Chief likes are adventure, sports, dates (edible) and people, becomes disgusted with scratchy fountain-pens, two-faced people, homework, and spinach, if you hear the word "Shucks" Madeline will be the speaker, Avon Grove class ring identifies her, here's a future secretary or old maid school teacher

ALMA RINEHART—Loves traveling and basketball, shinks from show-offs and gossipy people, pet saying is "Honest to Pete," deep sighs tell her tale, she sees nursing in her future

JIM ROBERTS—Jim tries to adapt himself to the surroundings, likes almost everything, known by the name "Bolo," his future is still undecided

CHARLIE RODGERS—Has a deep passion for athletics and chocolate cake, turns thumbs down on girls wearing high heels, "Tain't easy" is his pet saying, Peggy Ann will lead you to Charlie, teaching is in his future

FRED RODGERS—Centers his attention on dancing, athletics, devil's food cake, and music, shuns burned potato soup, identified by his twin brother, hopes to become a civil engineer

LUTHER SACHS—Wild about sports and eating, loathes Lebanon bologna, Swizzet cheese, "What's your trouble bubble," discharge button, hopes are high for junior business executive

JUNE SANDERS—Pet pastime, movies, snubs people who act sophisticated, "My Lause," easily known by "freckles," future housewife or secretary

MARY LOUISE SANDERS—Can't do without eating, talking and L.S.H., never seen working hard, "Well, my word," slim and talkative, a future beautician

DOROTHY SCOTT—Always seen with Raff (hurrying). Oh those skates, dislikes snakes and olives, "Well, I'll be switched," another secretary

NANCY SHANE BROOK—Glasses and clarinet, could listen to radio continuously, dislikes practicing piano, "Character," Spanish translator

LINDY SHANOLTZ—If you hear a roaring motorcycle, it's Lindy, against women drivers, always recognized by turtle-neck sweater, it's going to be the Merchant Marines for this boy

WILMER SHARRAH—Beautiful maroon shirt, thinks nothing can compare with football, dislikes stuck up people, future undecided

DALE SHEFFER—"Pocky," his passion, chicken, ice cream and sports, could murder noisy people, "Sticks and stones will break my bones, but words will never hurt me," future clerk

GERALDINE SHETTER—Adores polite boys, seen tagging after Evelyn Miller, despises turnips. Ah! Goesh! Beautician

GLADYS SHRIVER—Blond hair and Judy, loves all kinds of food, high-hatced people are a dislike, undecided future

RUTH SHURE—Our black haired Southern gal, English is her favorite, while chemistry bores her, "My golly!" heads this lady's pet expressions, another "Nightingale."

CATHARINE SMALL—A Sweetland fan, dotes on cokes and shoe strings, shadowed by "Toots" and Carol, Beech-Nut gum gorges "Cacky," but "Rudy" adores her, future beautician

LOTS SMALL—Loves Al, dislikes boys who gossip (that's for girls, too), always says "Holy Mud," travels with Cacky or Carol, a future secretary

PEGGY ANN SMITH—Simply adores dancing, "Stardust," snow, and "CHARLIE," despises gossips and show-offs, always declaring, "It's a little dirty," seen with Carlitos, fancies being a secretary

PHILIMINE SMITH—Thinks movies and ice skating are swell, turns her nose up at sweet potatoes, "Holy Cow," known for talking a great deal, desires to become a beautician

JOHN SNYDER—Likes anything mechanical, thinks the half-hour lunch hour is ridiculous, forever asking, "You like that, hub?" Always seen with a vehicle that's different, hopes to be an engineer

JEANMINE STAMBAUGH—Fancies dancing, and sleep, turns her back to boastful people, favorite expression is "Holy Cow!" Known by her changeable eyes, beautician

ROXEY STAMBAUGH—Adores tall men, dancing, turns her nose up at steamed cabbage and two-faced people, always says, "No!" Known by her shortness, future is a laboratory technician and housewife

TOM STEINBERGER—Loves all kinds of sweets, despises "show-offs" and teachers' pets, usually found discussing sports, future lies in teaching history

DONALD STERNER—Thinks pie, cake, and sports are "wonderful," dislikes girls (oh yeah) and cowboy'n in cars, "How can you tell," known by '41 green Chevrolet, small blue cap and answers to name of "Pickle," desirous of becoming a flyer

MARIE STERNER—Fond of bowling, potato chips and strawberry sundaes, turns her back to people who act sophisticated, always remarking, "My Golly," identified by solemnity, future's a beautician

ANN LOUISE STOCK—Fancies mid-nite snacks and rainy weather, people with unpolished shoes, plaid skirts and reindeer sweaters are displeasing, always remarking, "Everything's in an uproar," tagged her lucky number "13," desirous of obtaining a clerical position with the art lines

WILLIAM STRALEY—Adores girls, eating and taking trips, thinks girls' smoking is quite unladylike, always says, "Holy Smokes!" Identified by brown wavy hair and pencil behind ear, has an undecided future

RAE STROM—Concentrates on her steady, dancing, and yellow, thinks cabbage is horrible, always saying "Isn't that deer," a college freshman is her joy, the crystal ball says "Angel of Mercy"

DORIS TAUGHINBALTZ—Thinks of nothing but good food, and Tabu perfume. People who try to show-off are out, "Oh's for Pete's sake," a big laugh and a smile tag her, a beautician for the future

WILLIAM TINTON—Fishing and chocolate cake are tops, teacher's pets are definitely out, "Suffer and Misery" is a pet saying, "Tippy" identifies him, a future lawyer

JAYNE TONSEL—Loves tailored clothes, mother's fried chicken, Alan Ladd, good records, dislikes conceited boys, two-faced girls, a pair of golden earrings dangle, a language teacher is next

WALTER TROSTLE—Wine, women and song suit him. Goody-goody boys and stuck up girls are off the list, always says "Can't say it," seen in a '38 Ford, future is flying

BETTY WENSCHHOF—Craves ice cream, hiking, potato chips, parsnips, speed tests in typing are definitely out, wants to be commercial teacher and perhaps a housewife

The Prescotts live in an old house which is supposedly haunted by a ghost. As soon as they settle in, stories in their new home mysteries happenings take place. Melissa and Mitch try to solve the problem with the help of Peter, Enoch, Gurney, and Belle, tries to scare them all from the house. The Prescotts finally discover the g. A very interesting trick that Mr. Twitchell is not what he pretends to be and the mystery is soon solved.

It's all about the hilarious but sympathetic troubles that come down on Bob, a high school senior, when he falls for Joan, who can't help it that she's the principal's daughter—and then she decides to throw him over for a "college man"! There is some trouble with the P.T.A. ladies when they walk into booby traps set up by Bob's younger brother. Events take a sudden and delightful turn and the play ends with Bob on the top of the world.

1946 CANNON-AID NEWS
EISENHOWER

When General Eisenhower came to Gettysburg on May 27, 1946, to be the commencement speaker, he was the recipient of a copy of the 1946 Cannon-Aid, which carried a photograph of the famous five-star general.

Through the courtesy of Gettysburg College's president, Doctor Henry W. A. Hanson, the opportunity was given to several 1946 graduates to present their annuals and to photograph the occasion.
